

Additional Residential Units in Dundalk

Up to two Additional Residential Units must be allowed on lots with a one family home, semi-detached home or townhome with municipal sewer and water.

All additional residential units require a building permit to comply with the Ontario Building Code.